

DO YOU HAVE A FELONY?

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS!

● Voting: Can I vote after being convicted of a felony?

Yes, as long as you are not currently incarcerated serving a sentence you can vote. If you were incarcerated, any previous voter registration was canceled and you have to register again. Only a person convicted twice of violating election laws is banned from voting.

WHEN CAN'T I VOTE?

☐ If you are currently serving a sentence for a felony crime.

WHEN CAN I VOTE?

● If you are serving a sentence for a misdemeanor crime.

● If you are charged with a felony crime but your case is pending.

● If you are on probation, community control, parole, house arrest or living in a half-way house or treatment center.

Acceptable ID includes:

- An unexpired Ohio driver's license or Ohio state ID
- Military ID
- Other documents from within 12 months of the election date that have the voter's correct name and current address including a utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck stub or direct deposit receipt.

REGISTERING TO VOTE

● You can look up whether you have a current Ohio registration at:

<https://voterlookup.ohiosos.gov/voterlookup.aspx>

● You can register to vote at:

<https://olvr.ohiosos.gov/>

● Your permanent address is the place you consider a stable address. If you have a temporary address, like a shelter or halfway house, use this location. If you move, you need to update your address.

SHEILDING AN ADDRESS

Survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, human trafficking and stalking can hide their voter registration address from the public.
